Purpose

The purpose of this charter (the "Charter") is to provide guiding principles for the composition, the tasks and responsibilities, appointment of the members and the necessary expertise and knowledge of the individual members of the supervisory board (the "Supervisory Board") of Anadolubank N.V. (the "Bank") and the Supervisory Board as a whole. This Charter is adopted by the Supervisory Board on 4 December 2014 and effective as of 2 January 2015.

Principles

Article 1 Status and Content of the Charter

1. This Charter is drawn up pursuant to the Bank's articles of association (the "Articles of Association") and the Bank's policies and procedures. The Charter may only be amended pursuant to a resolution of the Supervisory Board following consultation with the Management Board.
2. In the event of conflicts arising between the provisions of this Charter and the Bank's Articles of Association and/or regulatory provisions, the latter will prevail.
3. In case of one or more provisions of this Charter are or become invalid, this shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions. The Supervisory Board will update and correct the invalid provisions in accordance with regulatory requirements. Each member of the Supervisory Board declares to apply and commit to all relevant provisions of this Charter. Prior to taking office a new member of the Supervisory Board declares in writing to adhere to the provisions of this Charter. The original signed copy of the declaration shall be kept by the Supervisory Board.
4. Business days as referred to in this Charter means any day other than Saturday, Sunday or a Dutch public holiday within the meaning of Article 3 of Dutch the General Extension of Time Limits Act (Algemene Termijnenwet).

Article 2 Responsibilities of the Supervisory Board

1. The Supervisory Board shall be responsible for supervising the Bank's strategy and the implementation thereof, the Bank's Management Board and for advising the Management Board. In performing its duties, the Supervisory Board shall be guided by the interests of the Bank and the enterprise connected with it, and shall take into account and balance the relevant interests of the Bank's stakeholders. The Supervisory Board shall have due regard for corporate responsibility issues that are relevant to the enterprise.
2. The specific overall tasks of the Supervisory Board are to focus and supervise the activities of the Management Board, including with respect to:
 - the setting up of the Bank's objectives, the strategy and the associated risk profile inherent to the Bank's business activities and financing in order to achieve this objectives;
 - the development of the results and corporate social responsibility issues;
 - the implementation and review of the long term strategy and commercial plans of the bank and the implementation and review of budgets and financial performance;
 - the implementation and maintenance of the risk management framework and internal control system throughout the bank;
 - the general and commercial risks;
 - the risk appetite, limits and authority levels;
 - the compliance activities, ensuring it addresses all key areas of risks;
 - the annual internal audit plan, including the scope and materiality level of the audit plan, ensuring it addresses all key areas of risk;
 - the establishment and maintenance of an independent internal audit framework aligned with professional standards;
 - the compliance with all relevant law and regulations;
 - the review of the report of the external auditor;
 - the instructions provided to the external auditor;
 - the relationship with the shareholder(s); and
 - the corporate responsibility aspects of the Banks's activities.
3. The members of the Supervisory Board are authorized, jointly as well as individually, to inspect all books and records of the Bank, to have all assets of the Bank shown to them, to have access to all premises used by the Bank and to contact individual staff members of the Bank.

4. The Supervisory Board will see to it that the Management Board will inform the members of the Supervisory Board annually in writing about the main characteristics of the corporate strategy, the general and financial risks and the control system of the Bank.
5. The Supervisory Board will see to it that the Management Board will timely inform and recommend for approval to the Supervisory Board the strategy, the budgets, the financial performance against budgets, the risk profile and risk appetite, the risk framework and the governance framework of the Bank.

Article 3 Composition and expertise of the Supervisory Board

1. The Supervisory Board shall be composed in such a way that it is able to perform its tasks properly. Complementarity, a collegial board, independence and diversity are preconditions for the Supervisory Board to perform its tasks properly.
2. The Supervisory Board shall consist of at least three (3) members.
3. At least two (2) of the members of the Supervisory Board shall have relevant expertise in financial administration and accounting. The members of the Supervisory Board shall have thorough knowledge of the Bank's functions in society and of the interests of all parties involved in the Bank.
4. Each member of the Supervisory Board shall be capable of assessing the main aspects of the Bank's overall policy in order to form a balanced and independent opinion about the basic risks involved. Each member of the Supervisory Board shall also possess the specific expertise needed to perform his or her role in the Supervisory Board.
5. Whenever there is a vacancy in the Supervisory Board, the individual profile for the new member will be re-assessed to evaluate if the profile is in line with the expected role of the Supervisory Board.
6. As part of the process to fill the vacancy of chairman of the Supervisory Board, an individual profile shall be drawn up that also focuses on the Bank's requirements in terms of expertise and experience in relation to the financial sector and familiarity with the socio-economic and political culture and the social environment of the Bank's main markets.
7. At least half of the members of the Supervisory Board, including the chairman, are independent within the context of Dutch Corporate Governance Code. A member of the Supervisory Board shall be deemed to be independent if the criteria of dependence of Dutch Corporate Governance Code do not apply to him/her or his/her spouse, his/her registered partner or other life companion, and his/her foster child or relative by blood or marriage up to the second degree.

8. Each member of the Supervisory Board, the chairman in particular, shall be sufficiently available and contactable to properly perform his/her tasks on the Supervisory Board.
9. The Supervisory Board shall prepare a profile of its scope and composition, taking into account the nature of the business of the Bank, its activities, and the desired expertise, experience and independence of the members of the Supervisory Board and taking into account the provisions on composition of the Supervisory Board in this Charter. The Supervisory Board shall evaluate the profile annually.

Article 4 (Re) Appointment of members of the Supervisory Board

1. The members of the Supervisory Board shall be appointed by the General Meeting of Shareholders upon a binding nomination made by the Supervisory Board. The General Meeting of Shareholders may at all times deprive such a nomination of its binding character by a resolution passed by at least two-thirds of the votes cast representing more than fifty percent of the issued capital. A second meeting as referred to in Section 120, subsection 3, of book 2 of the Netherlands Civil Code shall not be convened.
2. Before a candidate Supervisory Board member shall be appointed, the candidate Supervisory Board member must be approved by Dutch Central Bank ("DNB"). The approval process includes an integrity and suitability test.
3. In principal members of Supervisory Board shall be appointed for a term of four (4) years and may be re-appointed for two (2) additional terms. Term of office for a member shall not exceed twelve (12) years in total.
4. A member of the Supervisory Board shall resign no later than on the day of the first General Meeting of Shareholders to be held after the expiry of his/her appointment;
5. Members of the Supervisory Board shall resign early in the event of inadequate performance, structural incompatibility of interests, and other instances where resignation is deemed necessary by resolution of the Supervisory Board. Such early resignation is confirmed or decided upon by the General Meeting of Shareholders.
6. Any member of the Supervisory Board may be suspended and/or removed from office by the General Meeting of Shareholders at any time.

Article 5 Supervisory Board Meetings

1. In a calendar year, the Supervisory Board shall at least hold;
 - Four regular meetings to discuss the quarterly and year-to-date results; one of these meetings is for discussion with the Management Board of the business plan and strategic issues.
 - One separate meeting with the external auditor to discuss the annual accounts, the management letter and material findings; and
 - One closed meeting, without presence of the Management Board members, to discuss the performance of the Management Board members and prepare and agree upon the appraisal of the members of the Management Board and to perform a self-evaluation of the Supervisory Board.
2. Apart from regular meetings, the Supervisory Board may meet whenever a Supervisory Board member deems it necessary or desirable for the proper functioning of the Supervisory Board.
3. Supervisory Board meetings may also be held at the request of the Management Board.
4. Meetings of the Supervisory Board may be called by any member of the Supervisory Board by giving notice in writing to all other members of the Supervisory Board at least five Business days prior to the date of the meeting. In the event of an urgent matter, the chairman can decide that a Supervisory Board meeting may be called taken into account a shorter notice period, provided that the best efforts will be done to give all Supervisory Board members the possibility to participate.
5. A member of the Supervisory Board may be represented at the Supervisory Board Meetings by another member of the Supervisory Board acting by virtue of a power of attorney issued in writing, always provided that the appointment of a proxy shall require the approval of the Supervisory Board. A power of attorney given by virtue of this section may only concern the one specifically designated meeting stated therein.
6. Meetings of the Supervisory Board shall be chaired by the chairman of the Supervisory Board. The business transacted at the meetings shall be recorded in minutes kept by a secretary to be appointed by the Supervisory Board, from its members or otherwise, for each meeting or for a longer definite or indefinite period. The minutes shall be signed by all members of Supervisory Board present at the meeting.
7. Unless the Supervisory Board decides otherwise, meetings of the Supervisory Board, other than the close session, shall be attended by one or more members of the Management

Board. The Supervisory Board may require that certain officers and external advisors attend its meetings. The external auditor of the Bank shall attend the meeting at which the annual accounts review and the management letter are discussed.

8. Supervisory Board meetings are generally held at the offices of the Bank, but may also take place elsewhere. In addition, meetings may be held by telephone or videoconference provided that all participants have been notified timely and can communicate with each other simultaneously.

Article 6 Resolutions

1. In the meeting of the Supervisory Board each member of the Supervisory Board shall have one vote.
2. Meetings of the Supervisory Board may only be held if an absolute majority of the members of the Supervisory Board is present or represented. Members of the Supervisory Board may only be represented at meetings by another Supervisory Board member. Resolutions shall be passed with unanimity of the votes cast. If unanimity cannot be reached, the resolution shall be referred to the General Meeting of Shareholders.
3. The Supervisory Board members shall receive all information which is necessary for an informed and balanced decision at least two Business days prior to the Supervisory Board meeting.
4. In general, resolutions of the Supervisory Board shall be adopted at a Supervisory Board meeting.
5. The Supervisory Board may also adopt resolutions outside a meeting, provided that the relevant proposal has been submitted to all members of the Supervisory Board timely and none of the members of the Supervisory Board opposes to the adoption of the resolution outside the meeting. In the event that a resolution shall be adopted outside a meeting, section 3 of this article applies. The adopted resolution shall be included in minutes drafted with respect to said resolution, or in the minutes of the next Supervisory Board meeting.
6. The Supervisory Board shall not pass a resolution relating to the area of expertise of a particular Supervisory Board member in the absence of that Supervisory Board member, unless this Supervisory Board member has agreed to this procedure and has expressed his/her view in advance or unless the chairman decides it's an urgent matter.
7. The Supervisory Board shall keep records of all resolutions passed by the Supervisory Board. Said records shall be available for perusal of the shareholders and the holders of depository receipts that hold more than ninety percent of the Bank's shares, at the office of the Company. Upon request a copy of or an extract from said records shall be supplied to such shareholders or holders of depository receipts at a charge not exceeding cost. Subject to prior consent of the Supervisory Board, the said availability will be applicable to the Management Board.

Article 7 Chairman and vice-chairman

1. The Supervisory Board shall appoint from among its members a chairman and a vice-chairman, who shall represent the chairman in his/her absence. The chairman of the Supervisory Board shall be primarily responsible for monitoring the proper functioning of the Supervisory Board, act as the spokesman of the Supervisory Board and shall be the main contact for the Management Board. The chairman will represent the Supervisory Board to external parties.
2. The chairman of the Supervisory Board will not be a former member of the Management Board.
3. The chairman of the Supervisory Board sees to it that:
 - the Supervisory Board members follow their education or training programme;
 - the Supervisory Board members receive all information which is necessary for the proper performance of their duties in a timely manner;
 - there is sufficient time for consultation and decision-making by the Supervisory Board;
 - the committees of the Supervisory Board function properly;
 - the performance of the Management Board members and Supervisory Board members is assessed at least once a year;
 - the Supervisory Board elects a vice-chairman;
 - the Supervisory Board has proper contact with the Management Board and the works council (or central works council); and
 - (potential) conflicts of interest are immediately reported and properly solved.

Article 8 Supervisory Board committees

1. The Supervisory Board may decide to set up separate committees like a Risk Committee and an Audit Committee to support the Supervisory Board in its supervising role.
2. In the event the Supervisory Boards decides to set up separate committees, the Supervisory

Board may establish, with due observance of the Articles of Association, a committee charter concerning its internal proceedings within the committee.

Article 9 Self-Evaluation

1. The Supervisory Board shall discuss and evaluate at least once a year without the Management Board being present, its own functioning as a whole as well as the functioning of its individual members.
2. The report of the Supervisory Board will provide the information how the evaluation of the Supervisory Board has taken place. The report will not provide details of the outcome of the evaluation.
3. In addition to the Supervisory Board's annual self-evaluation, the functioning of the Supervisory Board shall be evaluated under independent supervision once every three (3) years. The involvement of each member of the Supervisory Board, the culture within the Supervisory Board and the relationship between the Supervisory Board and the Management Board shall be part of this evaluation.

Article 10 Relationship with the Management Board

1. The Management Board shall timely provide the Supervisory Board with all relevant information (generally, in writing) on all facts and developments concerning the Bank which the Supervisory Board may need to function as required and to properly carry out its duties, and, when necessary, verified by an internal and/or external accountant. The Supervisory Board is entitled to gather any information that the Supervisory Board requires, from employees of the Bank and/or external parties. The Supervisory Board is entitled to gather external (legal) advice.
2. The Supervisory Board, and its individual members, has its own responsibility for obtaining all information from the Management Board and the external auditor that the Supervisory Board requires for the due performance of its duties.
3. The Management Board shall at least quarterly provide the Supervisory Board with a report prepared in a format as agreed from time to time and setting out detailed information on inter alia the financial and commercial performance of the Bank.
4. Each year, without prejudice to the above, the Management Board shall submit for approval to the Supervisory Board the budget for the following year, the main features of the strategic policy and full information about the general and financial risks, the risk management and control systems of the Bank and the compliance with all relevant laws and regulations. In addition, the Management Board shall issue an annual declaration that it has provided the Supervisory Board with all relevant information required for the due performance of its duties. The Management Board shall provide the Supervisory Board with an updated medium term plan for approval, at least once every three years and annually an update of the actual performance against the approved strategy.

5. The Supervisory Board may be consulted by the General Meeting of Shareholders regarding the appointment/removal/suspension of any member of the Management Board from office.

Article 11 Relationship with the shareholder(s)

1. The Supervisory Board sees to it that the annual meetings of shareholders are held on a timely basis, that the agenda and information needed for consideration and resolutions are timely distributed and that the shareholders are provided with all necessary information and that the meetings are minuted.
2. All members of the Supervisory Board and the Management Board shall be present in General Meetings of Shareholders.
3. The General Meetings of Shareholders shall be chaired by the chairman of the Supervisory Board unless the Supervisory Board has designated another person for that purpose.

Article 12 Moral Declaration

1. Each Supervisory Board member will give the following moral and ethical conduct declaration in presence of the chairman of the Supervisory Board, in the event that the chairman of the Supervisory Board gives the moral and ethical conduct declaration, he will do so in presence of the longest-serving member of the Supervisory Board:

“I declare that I will act as a Supervisory Board member with integrity and conscientiously. I will carefully consider the interests of all stakeholders of the bank, such as clients, shareholders, employees and the society in which the bank operates.

When considering these interests, I will give paramount importance to the client’s interests. I declare that I will operate in compliance with the laws, regulations and codes of conduct that are applicable to me [...]. I will keep confidential what is entrusted to me. I will not abuse my knowledge.

I will position myself in an open and accountable way and I know my responsibility towards society. I will make a sincere effort to preserve and promote the trust in the banking sector. I will honor the role of a Supervisory Board member.”

2. The declaration signed by a member of the Supervisory Board shall be published on the bank's corporate website and/or be announced in the Annual Report as a Supervisory Board statement.
3. The Supervisory Board ensures that the moral and ethical conduct declaration is translated into principles that form guidelines for the behavior of all the Bank's employees and that the content of these principles shall be expressly pointed out to every new employee.

Article 13 Lifelong Training and Education

1. After appointment each member of the Supervisory Board shall follow a lifelong learning program, addressing the main topics as mentioned in the Dutch Governance Code and Dutch Banking code:
 - General financial relevant developments in the banking and in the financial sector, corporate governance in general and in the financial sector in particular, the duty of care towards the client;
 - Integrity, risk management, financial reporting and audits.
2. The assessment of the effectiveness of the lifelong learning referred to in the previous section shall be part of the annual evaluation performed by the Supervisory Board.

Article 14 Confidentiality

A member of the Supervisory Board shall during his/her membership of the Supervisory Board or afterwards not disclose in any way to anyone any information of a confidential nature regarding the business of the Bank and/or any companies in which it holds an interest, that came to the knowledge of the Supervisory Board member in his capacity as such and which he/she knows or should know to be of a confidential nature other than is in the normal course of business and unless required by law. A Supervisory Board member shall not use in any way whatsoever the information referred to above for his/her personal benefit.

Article 15 Conflict of Interest

1. Any conflict of interest or apparent conflict of interest between the Bank and Supervisory Board members shall be avoided. Decisions to enter into transactions under which Supervisory Board members would have conflicts of interest that are of material significance to the Bank and/or to the relevant Supervisory Board members require the approval of the Supervisory Board. The Supervisory Board is responsible for deciding on how to resolve conflicts of interest between Management Board members, Supervisory Board members, major shareholders and the external auditor on the one hand and the Bank on the other.
2. A Supervisory Board member shall immediately report any conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest that is of material significance to the Bank and/or to him/her, to the chairman of the Supervisory Board and shall provide all relevant information, including information concerning his/her wife/husband, registered partner or other life companion, foster child and relatives by blood or marriage up to the second degree as defined under Dutch law. If the chairman of the Supervisory Board has a conflict of interest or potential conflict of interest that is of material significance to the Bank and/or to him/her, he/she shall report this immediately to the vice-chairman of the Supervisory Board and shall provide all relevant information, including information concerning his/her wife/husband, registered partner or other life companion, foster child and relatives by blood or marriage up to the second degree as defined under Dutch law. The Supervisory Board member concerned may not take part in the assessment by the Supervisory board of whether a conflict of interest exists. A conflict of interest exists in any event if the Bank intends to enter into a transaction with a legal entity:
 - i. in which a Supervisory board member personally has a material financial interest;
 - ii. which has a Management Board member who is related under family law to a member of the Supervisory Board of the Bank; or
 - iii. in which a member of the Supervisory Board of the Bank has a management or supervisory position.
3. A Supervisory Board member may not take part in a discussion and/or decision-making on a subject or transaction in relation to which he/she has a conflict of interest with the Bank.
4. All transactions in which there are conflicts of interest with Supervisory Board members shall be agreed on terms that are customary in the sector concerned. Decisions to enter into transactions in which there are conflicts of interest with Supervisory Board members that are of material significance to the Bank and/or to the relevant Supervisory Board members require the approval of the Supervisory Board.

5. All transactions between the Bank and legal or natural persons who hold at least ten percent of the shares in the Bank shall be agreed on terms that are customary in the sector concerned. Decisions to enter into transactions in which there are conflicts of interest with such persons that are of material significance to the Bank and/or to such persons require the approval of the Supervisory Board.

Article 16 Remuneration of the Supervisory Board

1. Each member of the Supervisory Board shall receive a suitable compensation for the amount of time that he/she spends on Supervisory Board activities. This compensation shall not depend on the Bank's results.
2. Any other business related expenses shall only be reimbursed if incurred with the prior consent of the chairman of the Supervisory Board.
3. A member of the Supervisory Board shall not be granted any shares and/or rights to shares in the Bank's capital by way of remuneration. None of the members of the Supervisory Board shall accept personal loans, guarantees from the Bank unless in the course of normal business and after approval of the Supervisory Board. No remission of loans shall be granted.

Article 17 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

1. This Charter shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the Netherlands.
2. Possible disputes will be submitted to the court of Amsterdam.
